MOTOMAN ANNOUNCES STAFF CHANGES and ADDITIONS

Dayton, Ohio —Motoman Inc. is pleased to announce the following:

Carl Traynor has accepted a challenging new assignment at Motoman as Senior General Sales Manager of Distribution and Handling and will concentrate his sales efforts in generating non-automotive/non-thermal and integrator order growth. Traynor joined Motoman's Marketing Group in September 2000 and was promoted to Senior Director in 2001. Prior to joining Motoman, Traynor served as Vice President of Business Development at Dynalog, Inc.; as a technology business consultant at the Michigan Center for High Technology; and as an attorney for Lincoln National Corporation. Traynor's early background includes a B.A. in Economics from the University of Michigan and a Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Minnesota Law School.

Zane Michael has been promoted to Senior Director of Motoman's Marketing and Product Solutions Group and has joined the Motoman Executive Team. He is now responsible for marketing and the development of new products. Michael has been with Motoman since the company's inception in 1989 as a joint venture between Yaskawa Electric Corporation of Japan and Hobart Brothers Co. of Troy, Ohio. Prior to that, he served at Hobart Brothers, beginning in 1979. Michael holds an Associate's degree in Mechanical Engineering from Sinclair Community College, a Bachelor's of Science degree in Electronic Engineering Technology from the University of Dayton, a Master's in Operations Management from Kettering University, and will complete a second Master's in Manufacturing Management in September 2006.

Jim Bradley joins Motoman Inc. as Senior Director of Information Technology Group. Bradley will be responsible for leading the development and implementation of the company's current and future information technology initiatives, including Data Warehousing, E-Commerce and Customer Relationship Management, while maintaining and enhancing existing network, computer and enterprise tools. He comes to Motoman with over 25 years of Information Technology experience and 16 years of successful project/program management, including key leadership positions as Director, BDM International Inc. (now TRW), Project/Program Management Consultant for Atos Origin Inc and most recently, Enterprise Program Manager and Assistant Vice President at Fifth Third Bank. Bradley's educational background includes a Bachelor's in Business Administration degree in Quantitative Analysis and a Master's in Business Administration degree, both from the University of Cincinnati.

Motoman, Inc., based in West Carrollton, Ohio, is a leading manufacturer of robotic solutions with more than 24,000 robots installed.
